BAMMOHIL. 31 the side next to me move upward--1 pressed upon it heavily, but soon it passed out of the reach of us all--full six feet from me, and at least four from the nearest person to it I saw distinctly its position--not a thread could have connected it with any of the company without my notice, for I had come to detect imposition, if it could be found. In this position we were situated, when the question was asked, Will the spirit move the table back where it was before--And back it came, as though it were carried on the head of some one, who had not suited his position to a perfect equipoise, the balance being sometimes in favor of one side, and then the other. But it regained its first position. In the mean time the demonstrations grew louder and louder. The family commenced and sung the spirits song, and several other pieces of sacred music, during which accurate time was marked on the table, causing it to vibrate--a transparent hand, resembling a shadow, presented itself before my face--I felt fingers taking hold of a lock...
