CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 186 pages. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.4in. The Hauntings of Harrisonville is a companion to the Adventures of Jules de Grandin. It lists the characters and places, and there is a short synopsis of each of the 93 tales. It is designed to be used as a guide alongside the tales, to help the reader appreciate the works of Seabury Grandin Quinn. Included in the book is Quin by year, a bibliography of all the currently known works of both fact and fiction. It includes an index of material from The Dodge Chemical Company Magazine, the then De-Ce-Co Magazine. A complete year from The American Funeral Director, which is all I currently have. Plus the two rare books on Mortuary Matters, A Syllabus of Mortuary Jurisprudence, and An Encyclopedic Law Glossary For Funeral Directors and Embalmers. I have also added a few of my favourite Quotes, plus a few items that it is recommended all budding Phantom Fighters should arm themselves with. There is also a short list of items about Seabury Quinn, an other reference books used to compile the index of places and...
