The good, the clean, and earnest-minded are attracted and join their forces to it. Such was the secret of the mighty charm possessed by the Christ, the greatest and loftiest soul force that this world has ever experienced, because he was the personification of the most potent influence on earth--love. I make these observations before entering directly upon the argument, to show that I am not opposed to Christianity, but I am for it, and wish only to rid it of its accretions which have almost hidden the gospel of Jesus from the world. The resurrection of the identical material body is no part of the gospel of Christ, but only an accretion of the ages through which it has reached our day. I will now take up the prophets, and begin with St. Matthew. In his first chapter he says: Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: when as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost. Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily. But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of...
