This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1896 edition. Excerpt: .Maruts and Aged. Stanzas 1--3 are taken from hymns ascribed to the Rishi Parucbchhepa. One of the peculiarities of these hymns, which are generally obscure and frequently unintelligible is to reiterate a leading word which occurs the third or fourth from the end of the first line, and sometimes also of the third, and to repeat it as the last word of the line. Thus we have here 3, line 1. Snum eahato.Tills-- --, vprant no Jdtavedatam; this is little else than a kind of alliterative jingle, but the scholiast.thinks it necessary to assign to the repeated word a distinct signification. ---Wilson. 4 Busied with sacrifice, with spotted deer and spears, gleaming upon your way with ornaments, yea, our friends, Sitting on sacred grass, ye sons of Bharata, drink Soma from the Potar s bowl, O Men of heaven. 5 Bring the Gods hither,...
