One morning, as was her habit, Jan Kolb opened her Bible and read from Proverbs and received the command "to write." After continued prayer, she decided to create devotions to accompany a series of hymns that had been composed through the power of the Holy Spirit and given to her husband, who could not even read music! She sat with closed eyes, pad and pen in hand, and began to pray. Soon she was praying very deeply in Spirit. To her surprise, sentences began to form like soundless whispers within and with her eyes closed, she scribbled all that she heard the whispers say as she prayed. When she finally looked down at the pages she had written, there were scribbled lines all at a slant but readable. She knew the messages had been given to her by His Spirit. Each included a scripture passage, a devotion-like message, and a closing prayer. Each morning thereafter, Jan was drawn deeply into prayer through the power of the Holy Spirit, and each morning she was given a new writing sometimes several. And so it continued until there were forty-five writings each complete with scripture, meditation and closing prayer, and each with the title of a hymn from her husband's collection. You do not have to have a piano or instrument to enjoy the hymns, for they can be read as poetry, or sung softly without accompaniment of any instrument.
