

The Forest of Improbable Fate (Paperback)

By Paddy Stubbs

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In a dim and distant past, in a land long lost amidst the constantly shifting borders of history, the first rule when sacking a settlement was: Remember to slay the surly teenager! For the murderous Malroth the Malevolent and his band of savage marauders it was an overlooked rule that would come back to haunt them, in the ingenuous guise of sixteen years old Gorm. For a lad who has just survived a close encounter with Kolyn the Cannibal, wreaking terrible vengeance on a band of murderous cutthroats ought to be a breeze, but having deposited him at the mercy (or complete lack thereof) of his sworn enemy, the Gods appear to have taken the weekend off. Can Gorm escape a demise worse than a dinner date with Kolyn? Will violence averse Blunt the blacksmith, only other survivor of the tragedy, lay off the ladies and swear off the bottle long enough to attempt a rescue? And just whose side is mouthy young marauder Ranuk really on? The answers are to be found within The...
