Therefore the king 49 bestowed on him, in due form, the chief governorship (that Udaya had held), and gave the southern country with the materiel of war thereof. And Kittaggabodhi, the chief of the Rohana, had four sons 50 and three fair and lovely daughters. And his sister caused the 51 eldest son, the prince Mahinda, to be put to death, and took possession of the country and its treasure. Whereupon the three 52 princes, being provoked to anger at the murder of their brother, fled to the king s court, taking their three sisters with them. And the king, being a man of great lovingkindness, was filled 53 with compassion on seeing their forlorn condition, and pitied them like his own children, and brought...
